

TAKE YOUR PRACTICE TO THE NEXT LEVEL ENVISION... GROW... SUCCEED.

Michigan Financial Companies, a member of the John Hancock Financial Network is dedicated to impacting lives, lifestyles and legacies. We are a full-service financial organization that delivers the products, marketing, business development resources, and personal services that allow all of our associates to build successful practices through an independent platform. With over 20 offices across seven states, we have been able to assist individuals, families and business owners realize their financial goals for over 30 years.

We offer opportunities for you to:

- Be an independent advisor with autonomy over your own practice
- Take advantage of our proven success systems
- Provide your clients with the best products through an open-architecture platform
- Be a part of an experienced team that is dedicated to the success of your practice
- Grow your practice with a written plan in place for succession
- Build upon your skills and knowledge base to better service your clientele

We offer products and services in retirement funding, estate conservation, wealth accumulation, business succession planning and executive benefits for both publicly and privately-held companies.

At Michigan Financial Companies we provide proven resources, systems and world-class support. This means you will have a Unique and Unfair Advantage in your business. The real benefit is the confidence you have in knowing that you have a team that is committed to your success.
